Morris

Morris

Alfred Morris was 28-years of age when he came from Robeson County, North Carolina, to Marion County, Mississippi, and like others who are closely allied with the Pigotts, his county of origin is on the boundary line of North and South Carolina. He was born December 17, 1805, in Robeson County and died January 18, 1890, in Marion County, Mississippi, an aged man of 84 years.

He left the Morris name as a given name in four branches of the Pigott family. One great-grandson was named Alfred Morris Pigott (1914-1961) and his son is Morris Edwin Pigott. (see pages 82, 84, picture page between 84-85.)

Alfred Morris joined the Baptist faith as a youth in North Carolina, became a member of New Zion in December of 1850. In August of 1856 he withdrew from New Zion and in the following month into the constitution of the State Line Church.

At the age of 30, Alfred married December 24, 1835, in Marion County, Mississippi, to Sarah Ann Faulk, daughter of Jesse Faulk and Lucy Nance Faulk. Sarah Faulk Morris was born in 1814 in North Carolina. See Faulk resume on page 148.

Up until just before 1850, Alfred resided in Marion County, Mississippi. He moved into adjoining Washington Parish, Louisiana, just south of the state line and of the Dexter area.

Five children were born to Alfred Morris and Sarah Faulk Morris.

I. Lucy Elizabeth Morris was born March 25, 1837, and died July 14, 1915, at Flowers near Dexter. She married in 1853 to John Pigott (1831-1891), son of Thomas Pigott and Martha Fortenberry Pigott. Refer to page 41.

II. Sophronia Caroline Morris was born circa 1839 in Marion County, Mississippi, and married Frank Pittman. Known children were Stephen Pittman, Ed Pittman, Oakley Pittman, and Lucy Pittman.

III. William J. Morris was born circa 1840 in Marion County, Mississippi. William reportedly was in the Confederate military, became ill, came home, and died.

IV. John Morris was born circa 1842 in Marion County, Mississippi, and reportedly killed in military service for the Confederacy.

V. James Alexander Morris was born January 24, 1844, in Marion County, Mississippi, and died May 9, 1903. He is buried at Dexter. He married September 28, 1865, to Julia Alice Collins, daughter of Chauncey Collins and Amelia Woodruff Collins. Julia was born October 21, 1844, in Pike County, Mississippi, and died January 27, 1910. She too is buried at Dexter.

A. William F.Morris was born July 1, 1866, in Mississippi, and died October 12, 1946. He is buried at Dexter. He married first Emma S. Pittman who was born February 18, 1865, and died November 25, 1924. Eight children were born to this marriage. William married secondly to Nettie Hammonds, born March 22, 1895, and died August 15, 1955. Three children were born to this marriage.

1. Chauncey A. Morris married first ——— and married secondly June 12, 1926, in Meridian, Mississippi, to Martha Elizabeth Cross, daughter of John C. Cross of Enterprise. Chauncey, called Chance, lived at Dexter.

a. Mary Frances Morris married August 7, 1948, Charles Albert Byrd. See Page 57.

b. Julia Alice Morris was born January 22, 1934, and married April 5, 1958, to Charles Land Hite, and married April 5, 1958, to Charles Land Hite, son of James E. Hite, Sr. Julia graduated from the University of Mississippi. Charles graduated from Duke University and from the School of Hospital Administration at the Medical College of Virginia.

c. Peggy Morris married in 1957 to Clyde Fred Pigott, Jr. See page 102.

2. Dr. John T. Morris
a. Ann Morris married December of 1958 to Ed Connell.

3. William T. Morris was born February 16, 1892, and died February 27, 1944. He is buried at Dexter. He married July 14, 1942, to Annie Victory Stogner. There were no children.
4. Julia Alice Morris was born January 1, 1901, and died May 31, 1910.
5. Lucille Morris was born September 5, 1905, and died October 27, 1955, at her home at Dexter. She married Rossie Stogner. Lucille was a teacher of 24 years in the schools of Marion and Walthall Counties and a member of Crystal Springs Church, Dexter.
a. Joseph Stogner was born circa 1937.

6. Clifford Morris was born August 12, 1910, and died June 11, 1911.
7. Mary Morris
8. Ollie Morris married Albert L. Reagan
9. Ross Morris (by second wife) married Evelyn Simmons. They had Ramona Morris and Libby Morris.
10. Rex Morris and he had Connie Morris
11. Pat Morris married October 15, 1955, to Paul Lester Rimes, son of Willis S. Rimes.
a. Paula Gayle Rimes born December 15, 195— at Tylertown, Miss.

B. Rosa C. Morris was born 1868 in Louisiana.

C. Lucy Elizabeth Morris was born August 31, 1870, and died January 31, 1959, at Knoxo, Walthall County, Miss., married January 6, 1886, to William Isaac Pigott (1862-1949). Refer to page 89-91 and to Vince Resumē in appendix).
D. Luela A. Morris was born in 1873 in Louisiana.

E. George Alexander Morris was born 1878 in Louisiana. He married Mary Fortenberry, daughter of Thomas Benton Fortenberry.

F. Warren Morris was born November of 1879 in Marion County, Mississippi.

HISTORY OF PERQUIMANS COUNTY

MORRIS

Among passengers in Speedwell of London bound for America May 28, 1635 Richard Morris, age 19 years. Another by same name came to Va from London, the same year age 17. Edward Morris was transported to Va by John Ellis, Apl 1648. (Hotten.)

Mr Richard Morris "Minister of Bristol pish" Henrico Co Va, became later a resident of Isle of Wight Co, and had dau Anne, who was his heir 1678, her uncle Samuel Morris acting as Ex of his Estate. (Isle of Wight records.)

John Morris was living in Lower Norfolk Co Va, 1740. Charles Moris whose name is the first to appear on the records of Perq Co N. C. attended a Mo Meeting at Arnold White's house 24, 4mo 1679. He was probably father of John who appears in Perquimans county about 1704, with wife Hannah, they were living in Perq 1716. Little River Quaker Reg, gives most valuable information about this family, and they are always the best of authority.

Does anybody have any info on a MORRIS-COX feud in Marion Co.? Just received the booklet on the decendents of Edmund MORRIS. The reason Seaborn MORRIS settled in Covington Co. was to get away from a feud that was desimating both families. Pat I will send you a copy. The book only says that there was a bitter feud and one of Edmund sons was shot on the way to Church. - Robert

Thank you so much. I do not know their names, however, we used to go visit relatives in Moss Point when I was a child. One person was Fannie Wright Wilcox. I have no idea how this connects with Fannie Wright Morris. I do not know my great-grandparents names, but their children were: David Edmund(my grandfather); Tom; Loan; Will; Lillian(who married John Blumer and moved to Tampa Fl where he was postmaster for years). In 1954 when Shannon and I lived in Mrs. Annie Welch's little house next door to her on Main Street, She told me many tales of her childhood. The Morris home was on Welch Street where the Kennedy home later stood(Next door to the Mayes home). She told me that my grandfather (David Edmund) taught her and Mrs. Mayes(the grandmother "Nanaw") to ride a bike on Welch street. My grandfather is buried in Gulfport. The year you graduated from Moss Point, my husband Shannon, was Asst! . ! Band Director there. He went back to Miss. Southern and got a business degree and had a career with the government. He died in 1990. My grandfather (David Edmund) died in 1934 and was 50 years old, so I figure he was born about 1884. I have not been able to find a birth certificate or death certificate for him. Can you find this information? I truly appreciate your efforts and hope to come to Pascagoula one day soon to meet you.

I forgot to mention that my father was named John Harkness Morris so it is quite possible that my grandfather named him after his father. The Harkness is from his mother's maiden name. I'm just guessing as I really don't know their names. All I ever heard was Grandma and Grandpa Morris.

Dear Else, Over the weekend I have come upon the information that my grandfather, David Edmund(sometimes recorded as Edward) Morris was born in 1866. I found a record of where he was married to his first wife, Virginia Watkins, in Jackson County in 1890. She died and he later married my grandmother, Edna Irene Harkness.She was from Biloxi, Harrison county. If we could locate his birth records, perhaps we could ascertain his parents names. I do know that he died Dec 25, 1934. I am a novice when it comes to the computer, but I have been trying to explore the web sites you recommend. Thanks again for the help. Rosie Slyfield

Dear Else, I am just so excited I am almost overwhelmed! This information firms up so many things I heard over the years without confirmation. My grandfathers name was David Edmund Morris though he went by Ed. I came into possession of his Masonic records and he was listed as David Edward. He is buried in Gulfport in Evergreen Cemetery. He died on Christmas day in 1934 I believe. His first wife, Virginia Watkins, is buried in the Handsboro cemetery I was told. I have been in touch with a distant cousin in Biloxi(our grandmothers were sisters--Edna Harkness was my grandmother, Rosalie Harkness was her grandmother.) That is the Eugene Peresich branch of the family. Aunt Stella had some ancestry work done at one point and my cousin has contacted her nephew who has the material. He has said he will send it to me, but as yet I have not heard from him. I do so much appreciate all your e! ff! orts. How can I repay you? My address is: Rosie M. Slyfield, 827 Linda Drive, Mary Esther, FL 32569. I have had a most interesting time researching the web sites you recommend in your web page. One of the most surprising was to find that Shannon's brother, Bill Slyfield had died over a year ago. I think you might have known him. He had such potential, but unfortunately he more or less destroyed himself. By the way, you graduated the year before Shannon came to teach at MP High. We came the following fall. Thanks again. Hey! Got the "Sunday stuff." I am just wiped out! So much of the information I remember hearing snatches of, but never would have consciously recalled nor did I know the context. Now I'm wondering just what my grandfather's name actually was. He said it was David Edmund Morris. He died at my parents home in Gulfport on Christmas day of 1934. I was 3 years old, but I have vivid memories of him. Now--sometime prior to about 1920 he divorced my grandmother(Edna). They had 4 children: John Harknessborn Oct 8, 1901(my dad); Martha, Irene, Edward(I don't know their birth dates. I know my father,John, was born when they lived on Main Street in Biloxi. He later married a lady in New Orleans with 3 children. I knew his "step family" quite well. Actually, in my grandmother(Edna's) obit they were being civil by putting wife of Ed as they had long been divorced. I'm sure Aunt Ste! ll! a did that. She was the "Grand Matriarch" of the family. She never married nor did her younger sister"Mae" who lived with her all her life. Aunt Stella was the Postmistress in Biloxi for many years. When Great Grandma and Grandpa died they left the home at 1063 West Howard Ave in Biloxi and family resources to her with the provision that she would help any member of the family in need and she always did. Shannon and I lived in Atlanta for 5 years where he worked for HQ Air Force Civilian Personnel. He traveled all over the country and the world. We moved from there to London, England, UK, back to Illinois, then to Warner Robbins, GA for 5 more years. I love Ga and spend time there often. One of my son's lives there now and I have lots of friends there. I had also heard of the "Hand" family from time to time, did not know the connection. My grandfather's first wife, Virginia Watkins, had a brother that was! a! pharmacist in Handsboro and had a drug store there. His wife, Salome Watkins, was my typing teacher at Gulfport HS and she and my mother had a special friendship. Mother had told me that his sister was grandpa's first wife and that she died in the influenza epidemic around that time. Forgive me for rambling, but one thing just revives other memories and their significance that I thought I had long forgotten. I looked into the Handsboro Cemetary on Loraine Road in "Melba's Web Page, but the listing seemed to stop right about the time she died. I can't say when I will come down; I'm going to Mobile next week for the "Parade of Flowers" and shortly thereafter I will be going to GA to get my 2 youngest grandchildren(8 & ll) to keep during their spring break. So, it will probably be the second or third week of April. I will call you and see what would be the best time for you. I do remember your h! us! band when he was a child. It was interesting that you mentioned the Bishops as I have been thinking about them lately. Prof Bishop was already a legend in the band world when Shannon was in high school (1948). I got to know Shirley when Shannon worked for Mr. Bishop. Several of the new teachers at MP High that year(fall of 1954) had been my dorm mates at USM so we felt right at home. I was so glad to get the lineage on the Anna Morris family. I knew Frances Voorees and Kenny. She used to come over to the Slyfield's to see me from time to time and told me we were distant cousins though we never figured it out. She was most gracious when Mr. Slyfield died(1969). She helped out a lot. I am sorry to hear she has died. I also knew we were tied in with the O'Neills in some way. I knew grandpa's sister "Aunt Lil and her husband John Blumer. They came to see us from time to time an! d ! I remember a trip to New Orleans with them to see Grandma Edna who lived with her daughter Martha and son-in-law George Heller(he was from France). Some of my grandfather's other siblings I had never heard of. By the way, my grandmother also had a sister or maybe she was a sister-in-law, named Sadie Harkness. I used to see here in Biloxi at Aunt Stella's home and she came to visit us with my grandmother sometimes. Giles Harkness's son, Willie Newell, was Mayor of Texarkana, Ark at one time. My 4 children and I really appreciate all you efforts. It seems as if I have been on a long trip to visit all these people. I had quit stopping by Moss Point as I did not feel that I had any interest left there: Boy was I wrong! Thanks again! Rosie Slyfield.

Even as Tam Chau spoke, Viet Cong raiding parties overran a government - protected hamlet only five miles east of Saigon in one of the boldest attacks of the war.

"You cannot win the war through fighting," Tam Chau said in a major policy statement at the National Buddhist Center. He declared that brothers were killing brothers.

A communique distributed by the Buddhist Center appeared to be an indirect attack atainst American presence here. It criticized "unconscious foreigners who do not like our people to develop by leaps and bounds to be self-governing and self determined."

The communique said such foreigners "do nothing but cause troubles in order to enjoy richness and glories in spite of our peoples' worry and unhappiness."

Tam Chau's statement marked a dramatic switch in the public Buddhist position. Previously, Tam Chau and other militant Buddhist leaders have denied that they favored any cease-fire or a negotiated settlement with the Communists leading to a neutralization of South Viet Nam.

There have been charges in some quarters that the Buddhist leadership is pro - Communist. These allegations have also been vigorously and sometimes violently denied.

The Buddhist hierarchy is capable of mounting massive anti-government and anti-American demonstrations, inspired by hunger strikes and fiery suicides. At least four of the eight government upheavals in Saigon in the past 16 months have been preceded by Buddhist protests.

Julia Morris

Julia Morris is not a native of Ocean Springs, but said Sunday the city of the arts already feels like home. Morris, her husband and two daughters recently moved to the Gulf Coast from Texas and was visiting the 29th annual Peter Anderson Arts and Crafts Festival for the first time with her 7-month-old daughter, Avery. The mother and daughter we're checking out the pottery featured at Ocean Springs artist Rachel Voelkel's booth on Government Street. "I just love pottery," Morris said. "I've never seen so many vendors at one event." Morris said she loved the way the city pulls together for the event and features many local artists. Morris is a family practitioner at Ocean Springs Hospital.

FACES OF THE COAST

Claudia Morris

Claudia Morris is a native of Germany who lives in Ocean Springs where she just opened a new interior design business called In Trend Designs. Morris said she's been an interior designer since she was a little girl and she "rearranged the furniture in my mom's house whether she wanted me to or not." Eventually she pursued training by taking correspondences classes through a New York based interior design school. She met her husband, who is now retired from the air force, in Germany and the two traveled back and forth between the states and Europe. Now, their children are going to school in Florida and Alabama so they chose to settle in Ocean Springs where they can see them often. Morris said said she loves the business of interior design, even though it's not as glamorous as most people think. "There's a lot of project management involved and you get dirty once in a while," she said, "I love the materials, the fabrics, the flooring and the diversity of ideas and products involved." Morris said her favorite subject is bathroom remodeling because it offers a chance for creativity. Morris likes living in Ocean Springs but she sometimes misses the feel of European cities. On those occasions, she said she pops over to New Orleans which reminds her of places like Paris.
